

THE BLACK GASOLINES

THEATRICAL ROCK REINVENTED

BIO

The Black Gasolines is a belgian theatrical/art rock band founded by Lukas Debeerst and Bradley Remorie in 2016.

After their debut Ep "Dopamine Rush" in 2018, they changed their drummer to Justin Bruggeman and went on a quest to play as much as possible. They played more than 45 concerts each year with stops in Ghent, Antwerp, Amsterdam and London. they released 2 singles, "Long Way Suicide" (2019) and "Kangaroo Days" (2020).

With the introduction of Matthias Depraetere as the new piano player, they released their first album 'It Took a Lifetime' at the beginning of october 2021.
